

Why do I need Notary Errors & Omissions Insurance when my state already requires me to purchase a Notary Bond?

It's extremely vital to realize that your notary bond is NOT insurance protection for you, as a notary public. Your notary bond safeguards the public from financial mischief that results from any careless mistake or deliberate misconduct you commit while executing a notarization.

If you make an inadvertent error or omission, or an individual files a false claim against you, it could cost you thousands and thousands of dollars to defend yourself in a lawsuit simply to prove you acted responsibly. Furthermore, if a claim is made against your notary bond, you're obligated by law to pay it back. You may also be held personally accountable for any extra costs above the amount of your notary bond, which may consist of legal fees, court costs, and other miscellaneous expenditures.

Protection against notary errors & omissions is more important than ever because lawsuits against notaries are becoming more common each day. Make sure this doesn't happen to you.

Notary E & O insurance coverage benefits include:

- No deductible
- Covers defense costs
- Protects against errors & omissions
- Various limits of insurance available at nominal premiums
- Additional notaries covered automatically under blanket policy
- Employers covered under blanket policy at no additional charge
- Protection against liability the entire term of your notary commission

Our notary errors & omissions insurance protects you. Are you protected? For just pennies a day our notary errors & omissions insurance is your protection should you make an innocent mistake and find yourself faced with a lawsuit. It's very important to have someone in your corner.